World-class arts, education, and live performance amidst majestic natural beauty.

For nearly 60 years, SPAC has fostered connection through the performing arts. Set in the awe-inspiring setting of Saratoga Spa State Park, SPAC is a destination like no other. Known for world-renowned residencies featuring New York City Ballet, The Philadelphia Orchestra, Saratoga Jazz Festival, and Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, as well as popular concerts presented by Live Nation, SPAC also offers year-round programming at Spa Little Theater and SPAC School of the Arts. At SPAC, there's something for everyone.

As a nonprofit organization, SPAC relies upon memberships and charitable donations to support our ongoing work to serve art, artists, and community. SPAC combines esteemed artistic excellence with community engagement, offering free arts education programs now serving over 50,000 students in the greater Capital Region each year. As a Member, you ensure that people of all ages and abilities have the opportunity to experience the life-changing power of the arts, and the magic that is SPAC.

Embracing an expanded definition of the arts—including performing arts, visual arts, literary arts, culinary arts, and healing arts—SPAC is your vibrant and enduring home for creativity surrounded by stunning natural splendor.
